Focus on Sexual Health in Women's Healthcare

Women's Healthcare: A Clinical Journal for NPs, the official, peer-reviewed journal of the National Association of Nurse Practitioners in Women's Health, invites you to submit short-form manuscripts (2,000 word maximum including references and graphics) with a focus on sexual health. Manuscripts should provide up-to-date, evidence-based information on a sexual health topic relevant to NPs providing women's and gender-related healthcare. Consult our Guidelines for authors for more detailed information. Email queries concerning manuscript submission to gschwenker@healthcommedia.com.
